ST. PIUS X WOMAN'S CLUB

MARK YOUR CALENDAR!.....

There will be the first of a series of rehearsals on Monday, July 11 at 9:30AM for a reading of "Say No, Thank You!" a comedy for presentation at our opening meeting October 10, 2005 in the Parish Hall.

Stewardship Meeting

Stewardship Meeting (held first Monday of the month) will continue through the summer. However, due to the holiday, the July meeting will be scheduled for Monday, July 11, at 7:00PM, in the St. Pius X Hall.

We invite all of our parishioners, members of our various ministries, and friends to attend this meeting.

Light refreshments will be served. Be a joiner and learn what is going on in the parish.

Congratulations to Mary Stancu and Fabian Chavez , who were married in our church last Saturday. We offer them our prayers and good wishes that God will abundantly bless their married life together.

ARCHDIOCESE OF MIAMI OFFICE OF THE ARCHBISHOP

Dear Friends in Christ:

The annual National Black and Indian Mission Collection will be gathered in the Archdiocese the weekend of July 10, 2005. For over a hundred years there has been a strong program of the Church for evangelization programs. Bishops sending priests and sisters to minister with the people found that they needed financial assistance to continue bringing the Church to the people. And the people themselves made a strong appeal to the National Church for consideration and assistance. At this time in the Church there remains a definite need for the Collection.

With the conveniences of today – automobiles, telephones – the distances of the past are not the problem they were for early missionaries. The ministry remains the same, through providing evangelization, the Sacrifice of the Mass, the sacraments to the Black and Native American people and there is a definite need for those ministering to receive financial assistance for parishes and schools.

Each year by contributing to the Collection there is a real opportunity for Catholics to participate actively in evangelization programs.

Over the span of the hundred years of the Collection, the willingness of pastors nationwide to appreciate and support the work of the Black and Indian Mission office, by promoting the Collection, has been a great part of the success of the collection. I ask everyone in the Archdiocese, priests and people, to be as generous as possible for the year 2005 Collection. Together we can assist the Church's ministry through gifts to help their evangelization programs. If we all do a little, a lot can be accomplished.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Archbishop of Miami

This week the second collection will be for this purpose. Please be as generous as you can.

Remember this.....

God won't ask what kind of car you drove, but He'll ask how many people you drove who didn't have transportation.

God won't ask the square footage of your house, but He'll ask how many people you welcomed into your home.

God won't ask about the clothes you had in your closet, but He'll ask how many you helped to clothe.

God won't ask what your highest salary was, but He'll ask if you compromised your character to obtain it.

God won't ask what your job title was, but He'll ask if you performed your job to the best of your ability.

God won't ask how many friends you had, but He'll ask how many people to whom you were a friend.

God won't ask about the color of your skin, but He'll ask how you treated your neighbors.

Prayer for Our Troops

Lord, hold our troops in Your loving hands. Protect them as they protect us. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform for us in our time of need. I ask this in the name of Jesus, Our Lord and Savior. Amen.
