It is gratifying to see our people showing an impressive generosity to the church this month – despite the pressures of Christmas shopping. Keeping “Christ in Christmas” is more than a slogan in this parish.

This year January 1st is not a Holy Day of obligation.

BEST WISHES FOR THE NEW YEAR!

Fatima Devotions

“Imagine the joy of holding the Christ Child in your arms,” a woman said as she studied a picture of Mary, Joseph, and the Child. “It would be a terrible responsibility,” her husband replied. You would be committing yourself totally, and have no time for yourself.”

Doesn't this happen when we receive Holy Communion? The Eucharistic union means being Christ's hands and feet, finding the lost sheep, feeding the hungry, denouncing discrimination, binding up wounds, spreading the Word of God, and looking out for “the least” of Christ's people.

We are about to face another year, another chance to make up for all those lost ones when we didn't understand.

Please join us for the recitation of the Rosary at 8:40AM, Saturday, January 6, 2007, and then stay and attend Mass and receive Holy communion with us.

FIRST FRIDAY HOLY HOUR JANUARY 5, 2007

You are invited to “Come, watch one hour....” with the Lord in the Blessed Sacrament. We will have our monthly Holy Hour here in our church this Friday, January 5th, after the 9:00AM Mass. What a wonderful opportunity this is for us, in the early days of this New Year, to start out by thanking the Almighty for all He has given us, and by asking His blessing and His protection in the days that lie ahead.
