Growing Old Gracefully

Charlton Heston – the great actor of “The Ten Commandments” fame – put a little humor into his growing old when he wrote:

“If you see a little less spring in my step, if your name fails to leap to my lips, you’ll know why. And if I tell you a funny story for the second time, please, laugh anyway!”

Jesus spoke the famous “Eight Beatitudes” in the Sermon on the Mount.....Thought the following Beatitudes would help all of us – young and old.

Golden Age Beatitudes

- Blessed are they who bring back memories of yesterday.
- Blessed are they who understand my faltering steps and shaky hand.
- Blessed are they who know that my ears today must strain to catch the things they say.
- Blessed are they who seem to know that my eyes are dim and my wits are slow.
- Blessed are they who looked away when the cup spilled at my table today.
- Blessed are they with a cheery smile who stop to chat for a little while.
- Blessed are they who never say “you’ve told that story twice today”.
- Blessed are they who make it known that I am loved, respected and not alone.
- Blessed are they who know I am at a loss to find the strength to carry my cross.
- Blessed are they who in loving ways ease the days on my journey home.
