LORD'S LAUGHTER

In the supermarket was a man pushing a cart that contained a screaming, bellowing baby. The gentleman kept repeating softly, "don't get excited, Albert; don't scream, Albert; don't yell, Albert; keep calm, Albert."

A woman standing next to him said, "You certainly are to be commended for trying to soothe your son, Albert."

The man looked at her and said, "Lady, I'm Albert."

A little boy ran to his father. "Wow!" he exclaimed, "you oughta see our new neighbors' neat lawn mower! It doesn't need gas or anything – all you have to do is push it!"

A lady went into the post office to buy stamps to mail her daughter's wedding invitations.

"I'd like 200 stamps, please," she said to the clerk.

"What denomination?" the clerk asked.

"Oh, dear," she said. "I didn't know it had come to that. I suppose it would be best to split them. Give me 100 Baptist and 100 Catholic."

A retired Priest in his eighties is still winning foot races in the senior Olympics. After he easily won the 100-meter dash, a colleague congratulated him on his win. The senior Olympian replied, "It really wasn't that hard. I was the only one who heard the gun."

A Prayer For Priests

Keep them, I pray Thee, dearest Lord,
 Keep them, for they are Thine –
 Thy priests whose lives burn out before
 Thy consecrated shrine.
 Keep them for they are in the world,
 Though from the world apart.
 When earthly pleasures tempt, allure, --
 Shelter them in Thy heart.
 Keep them, and comfort them in hours
 Of loneliness and pain,
 When all their life of sacrifice
 For souls seems but in vain.
 Keep them, and O remember Lord,
 They have no one but Thee;
 Yet they have only human hearts,
 With human frailty.
 Keep them as spotless as the Host
 That daily, they caress –
 Their every thought and word and deed.
 Deign, dearest Lord, to bless.

THINK ABOUT IT..... Sometimes, true courage in life is just being a decent human being.

The most damaging phrase in the language is, "We've always done it this way."
