I AM THE FLAG

I am the flag of the United States of America. I was born on June 14, 1777, in Philadelphia. There the Continental Congress adopted my stars and stripes as the national flag.

My thirteen stripes, alternating red and white, with a union of thirteen white stars in a field of blue, represented a new constellation, a new nation, dedicated to the personal and religious liberty of mankind. Today there are fifty stars that represent each of the fifty sovereign states in the greatest constitutional republic the world has ever known.

My colors symbolize the patriotic ideals and spiritual qualities of the citizens of my country.

My red stripes proclaim the fearless courage and integrity of American men and boys and the self-sacrifice and devotion of American mothers and daughters.

My white stripes stand for liberty and equality for all.

My blue is the blue of heaven, loyalty, and faith. I am the flag. I symbolize all that is uplifting and good about our country.

Monday, June 14th is Flag Day. Fly it proudly.

GOD BLESS AMERICA!

Feeding the Hungry

It's the beginning of a beautiful, hot summer here in south Florida – and the hungry are still among us. In fact, St. Vincent DePaul tells us that more and more families are showing up every Friday at their food Bank for something to eat. HOW VERY SAD THIS IS!

Please consider bringing one of the following to Mass when you come on the weekends. Our supermarkets offer buy one-get one free every week in their ads. Won't you please bring the free one to us?

Our needs are: Pasta & pasta sauce, canned meats & canned soups, peanut butter & jelly, crackers, cereal & powdered milk.

Your donation can be placed in the baskets at the entrances of the Church. And, be assured, you will be in the prayers of these hungry persons for thinking of them. God bless you for caring and sharing.
